

13th Asian Women in Leadership Summit

Inspire Inclusion in the Era of GenAI & Robotics

September 26, 2024

Sheraton Towers
Singapore

Successful companies are going beyond diversity, they are striving for greater inclusion, and equity. For these organizations, achieving DEI is much more than meeting some diversity metrics; they seek to create and nurture a culture that promotes and celebrates Diversity, Equity and Inclusion. Leading companies are pursuing inclusion at a time the businesses face serious disruptions and transformation with Generative Artificial Intelligence (GenAI)

AWLS 2024 will focus on how leaders and organizations are promoting DEI as a culture as they adapt to the changing business landscape with GenAI which is likely to have profound impact on businesses, careers, and people.

Overview

A recent assessment report by UN Women is titled “The World is failing girls and women” and estimates the need of an additional USD 360 billion in investment per year to achieve gender equality and women’s empowerment by 2030.

As for women in corporate leadership, the current situation reflects both progress and persistent challenges. While there has been an increase in women’s representation in corporate leadership, disparities persist, with women still underrepresented in top executive positions and boardrooms. The global gender pay gap remains a concern, and women often face challenges in achieving equal pay. Women-led startups are growing, but obstacles in accessing funding persist.

With the advent of GenAI, society is at the cusp of a massive transformation. Another big technological change is advances in Robotics. When AI meets robotics, big changes will follow. Established businesses will be transformed. New businesses will emerge. Some say that more than 50% of current jobs may not exist. Which jobs will survive? How would this affect women in workforce? What can leaders do to promote gender parity as they embrace GenAI and Robotics.

About AWLS

Launched in 2016, AWLS has emerged as a credible platform that provide leaders- women and men- an opportunity to celebrate the journeys of successful women leaders and exchange ideas on how to develop and nurture women leaders to achieve a more equitable, inclusive, and sustainable growth. It also provides leading organizations to showcase their exemplary work in DEI and thus promote their brand, especially for talent. Participants have an excellent opportunity to network, find mentors and make new connections.
